The affair in which Griswold was involved was of a family nature personal to himself and one which unfortunately took a place of public gathering for en-actment. Sheriff Stevens took the view that a belligerent part in a row with a woman was inconsistent with the office of deputy sheriff, and noted in accordance with that view.

To Erect Tower on Mount Carmel.

Many people in Pittsford are inter ested in the tower which is soon to be erected on the summit of Mount Carmel. Mount Carmel is a spur of the Green mountains and is the highest point in Chittenden. Charles Dodge who is the general promoter of the en terprise, will have charge of the build-ing of the tower which will be fourteen feet square at the base and thirty-three feet high. The top, which is eight feet square, will be enclosed by a railing and be reached by stairs. The view from the tower will be one of the finest in Vermont, Lake Champlain, Burlington, and the Adirondacks are to be seen in the west, while in the east the White mountains stand out prominently.

Fair Time in St. Johnsbury.

There'll be something doing in St. Johnsbury Sept. 19-21, and lots of peo-ple in Barre and vicinity will want to take a hand in it. Caledonia county fair this year will be "the biggest ever," and will not taken a back seat for any-thing east of Toronto. The Southern exthing east of Toronto. The Southern exhibit will be worth the whole price of admission. Sections of rice and cotton fields will be shown, as well as a peanut patch, a pincapple farm, with woods and minerals of the South. No pains or expense have been spared to make this fair worthy the attendance of thousands. U. S. Cavalry drills by a troop from Fort Ethan Allen, good races for fat purses, vaudeville entertainment, and fat purses, vaudeville entertainment, and a magnificent display of the best cattle in New England, are some of the features. Reduced railroad rates as usual

Got Good View of Eclipse.

Residents of Ames bill were more fortunate than denizens of the valleys in being afforded an excellent opportunity Wednesday morning, August 30, of riewing the eclipse of the sun, says a Brattleboro correspondent. Unlike other ocalities in southern Vermont the peode of the hill were able to observe the phenomenon from its early beginning to its close, the sun being partially eclipsed for nearly an hour. Clouds obscured the eclipse from most points hoped to afford an observation, but from the pinnacle of Ames hill, 1,800 feet above the sen, one could get an interesting view from the earliest contact. Had some of the enthuslastic astronomers been stationed on this lofty spur of the Green mountains they would have been rewarded with an exceptionally good view of the planets, the careful moving of which they were so generously commissioned to note in various parts of the world.
